FOUR FREED FLIERS ARE EN ROUTE TO HAWAII

No Word from China on Other Prisoners: Ike

President Will Attend Ceremonies
On UN Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that the United States has no word yet whether Red China will follow up its release of four American airmen by freeing 53 other Americans.

Mr. Eisenhower did not indicate whether he is optimistic or pessimistic about the chances of the other Americans being freed. The President also announced at his news conference that he is going to San Francisco for the opening June 20 of the 10th anniversary ceremonies of the United Nations.

So far, he said, no decision has been reached on a time or place for the Big Four meeting of the chiefs of state this summer. The United States has suggested that the meeting be held in Switzerland starting July 18.

Other highlights of his news conference:

POLIO: He said enough vaccine will be released within 30 days for shots for first and second graders and the inoculations will be completed in 60 days. He said the voluntary distribution program is working well and the government does not need standby powers which some members of Congress want to give him.

POLITICS: Mr. Eisenhower said he finds his job fascinating and intriguing, but, at the end of three years, he has no taste for politics. He gave no hint, however, whether he will seek re-election. He said the opportunities of his job to work for world peace and other benefits for mankind make for a fascinating business. But as for politics itself, in what may be called the derogatory sense of the word, he still doesn't like it.

FAR EAST: He said he does not see how abandonment of Nationalist-held Quemoy and Matsu to the Chinese Communists would help the American situation in the Far East in the least.

TAXES: He feels it would be a wonderful thing if the budget could be balanced and taxes cut next year. But the first thing, he said, is to balance the budget before any tax relief can be offered.

MRS. HOBBS: To a question about the possibility of a Undersecretary of Treasury Marion B. Folsom replacing Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby as secretary of health, education and welfare, he replied that Mrs. Hobby has not resigned.

AIR POWER: He said Russia's unanticipated success with intercontinental bomber development has led to a step-up in our B52 program. But he didn't know what effect it would have on this year's military budget.

AUTO WAGE TALKS: He would not want the government, except through the regular mediation services, to step into the current automobile wage negotiations. He wouldn't say whether a strike in the industry might develop a national emergency which would necessitate government intervention.

As for the union's demand for a guaranteed annual wage, he recalled his own stand that states should be encouraged to extend the time limit on unemployment compensation payments.

Rotary Commended In Message From Eisenhower

CHICAGO (AP)—President Eisenhower commended Rotary International for "making an outstanding contribution toward peace" in a message to the organization's golden jubilee convention.

About 20,000 delegates from 90 nations and nearly 9,000 clubs are attending the convention, which opened Monday.

Election of A. Z. Baker, president of the American Stock Yards Assn., Cleveland, Ohio, as Rotary's new president and a pageant with a cast of 250 depicting Rotary's 50 years highlighted the opening sessions.

Retiring President Herbert J. Taylor, Chicago, read the message from President Eisenhower, an honorary Rotarian at Abilene, Kan. Monday night.

The message commended Rotarians for "making an outstanding contribution toward peace through the promotion of international understanding and good will among the peoples of the free world."

The convention ends Thursday, when Vice President Richard M. Nixon will speak.

Commencement Tonight at High School

Choose to Serve
God, Rev. Morman Says
At Baccalaureate

Commencement exercises will be held Sunday night at 8 o'clock at Davenport gymnasium for members of the Harrisburg Township high school graduating class.

Rev. John H. Hubbard of Park Ridge, Ill., will deliver the address. His subject will be "The Seeds of Success."

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday night at Davenport gymnasium with the Rev. R. J. Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church, delivering the sermon on "Refusing and Choosing."

"Choose the way of service for God," Rev. Morman urged the graduates. "Choose to serve God along with whatever profession you select," he said.

Rev. Morman pointed to the life of Moses on how easy it would be to accept the material things of life, but urged them to do as Moses did and choose to serve God.

"The world is filled with women and men who take the easy way and refuse to make the hard decisions," Rev. Morman said. "Do not turn your back on the hard choices. If it is good in God's sight, choose, and refuse it if it is not," he said.

Baccalaureate services were opened with organ prelude by Paula Reynolds. The class Processional was played by the Harrisburg Township high school orchestra. Invocation was given by Rev. W. B. Fuson, pastor of the Dorrisville Baptist church.

A mixed group of 10 high school singers sang "One God," scripture reading was by Rev. Glen L. Daugherty, pastor of the First Christian church, followed by a vocal solo, "Wake, Soul of Mine," by Carroll Clark.

The baccalaureate sermon was followed by another selection, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor," by the high school singers, and benediction was by Lt. John W. Kimmons of the Harrisburg unit of the Salvation Army. The class Recessional was played by the orchestra.

George Farmer, Former Resident of Dorris Heights, Dies

George Farmer, son of Mrs. Aurora Irvin of Eldorado and the late Ira Farmer, died Monday at 3 p. m. in the research hospital in Ann Arbor, Mich. He formerly resided in the Dorris Heights community, but recently had made his home in Detroit, Mich.

Surviving are his wife, Virginia; his mother; two sisters, Mrs. Edward (Mary) Doolin, and Mrs. William (Bonnie) Dimond, and two brothers, James and Jack, all of Keego Harbor, Mich.

Funeral services were held in Detroit today. The body will be returned to Harrisburg tomorrow for burial in the Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Driemeyer Urges Daily Observance of Memorial Day to Avoid Past Mistakes

Cemeteries and grave decorations were beautiful this Memorial Day as families honored their dead.

The day was observed at Sunset Lawn yesterday morning with activities by the Harrisburg posts of the American Legion and Veterans and Foreign Wars and their auxiliaries.

There was a parade from McKinley Avenue Baptist church to the cemetery, ceremonies by the service organizations, pinning of corsages on Gold Star Mothers, and an address by Ed Driemeyer of Herrin, former state commander of the American Legion.

Driemeyer's address was stirring and challenging.

His Mistakes

Declaring our nation is free and strong only because of brave Americans who were ready to risk their lives, he said that every day should be a Memorial Day, that daily observance perhaps would keep us from forgetting the mistakes of the past.

He told of the apathy and unpreparedness of the country at the time of World War I and World War II and said:

"Our mistakes and oversights had to be redeemed by the sacrifices of our gallant youth."

Since V-J Day, Driemeyer continued, "we have contributed to the menace of an expanding world of Communism," and instead of a "police action," he called the Korean conflict a "bloody, rotten war" in which the boys died just as hard and just as dead as they did in previous wars.

Driemeyer blamed the United Nations for setting up the "police action" which took so many lives in a war which turned out to be a human sacrifice "to the unholy group which would regiment the world."

If the Korean conflict had been designated a war, he said, 55,000 Communists in this country could have been jailed.

Honor Gold Star Mothers

The ceremony started with the parade, led by the Harrisburg Township high school and the Legion-VFW color guard and firing squad.

Stevenson Will Run Again, Times
Article Claims

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson would accept the Democratic presidential nomination in 1956, the New York Times said today.

Times correspondent Richard J. H. Johnston reported from Chicago that Stevenson has "reached a firm conclusion that the Republicans do not have the ability to govern the nation at a complex and critical point in history."

Johnston wrote that Stevenson would make no public statement of his availability for the nomination until the end of the summer but he said the former Illinois governor is no longer a "reluctant" candidate.

Stevenson's intimate friends are convinced the self-elimination of potential candidates such as Sens. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee and Stuart Symington of Missouri is clearing the way for Stevenson's candidacy, the story said.

Stevenson has told friends that he is "profoundly disillusioned" with the apparent inability of President Eisenhower to unite warring elements of the Republican party and for this reason Stevenson's availability does not depend on whether Mr. Eisenhower runs again, Johnston said.

mony was held with VFW Auxiliary taking part. John Schork sang and the firing squad sounded a salute, followed by Taps.

At the Miniature Cemetery and G. A. R. Memorial, the program was held with Robert Hull, commander of the Legion, presiding. Following opening prayer by the Rev. William Fuson, the Junior high school band played a number and played "America," with John Schork leading the singing.

Next Gold Star mothers were acknowledged and each present received a corsage. They were Olive Cain, Mary Jennings, Anna Levinsky, Mary Sabo, Bertha Duncan, Mary Leskis, Nellie Harrison, Maude Hawkins, Fannie Gates, Lane Nemeth, Dorothy Ledbetter and Susie Horvath.

Following remarks by Frank Channess, Mr. Driemeyer spoke. There followed the playing of the National Anthem by the Junior high school band, the benediction by the Rev. Clayton Humphrey, the placing of the wreath on the grave of the Unknown Soldier, the firing of the salute and Taps.

Ike Attends Services at Gettysburg Site

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower attended Memorial Day services at historic Gettysburg battlefield Monday.

The President interrupted a long weekend stay at his farm retreat nearby to make a quiet appearance at the national cemetery.

He left here early today for Washington to be back in time for his weekly news conference.

Mrs. Eisenhower remained at the farm until later today when she planned to drive down with her mother, Mrs. John S. Doubt.

Mr. Eisenhower took a back seat Monday at the cemetery Abraham Lincoln enshrined with his immortal Gettysburg address. He was not even introduced to the crowd of several thousand gathered a few yards from the site where Lincoln spoke.

The chief speech was made by Harold E. Stassen, the President's new "secretary for peace," who spoke of a "tyrant's armies" on the move and called for "power to deter" its progress.

Mr. Eisenhower made the short drive to the cemetery after playing three times around the nine-hole Gettysburg golf course. He had been asked months ago to take part in the ceremony but could not accept that far in advance.

While the President listened intently, Stassen told the gathering the United States must continue strong "until the immoral law of force gives way to the force of moral law." He said "those who love and cherish liberty must have power to deter its deadly foes."

Latest of the Tri-State oil reports show that the Paul McKinnis Unit No. 1 is 270 feet north and 452 feet east of the SW corner of the SE quarter of the SW quarter, 16-88-7e, and the McKinnis Unit No. 2 is in the SE corner of the SE quarter of the SW quarter of Section 16-88-7e.

The report showed that the Waltersburg was 42 feet thick at the No. 1 and 41 feet thick at the No. 2.

End Segregation Rapidly, Court Ruling Directs

Warren Tells Lower
Courts to Check
Schools' Compliance

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today ordered segregation in public schools ended as rapidly as "local problems" permit.

It gave local federal district courts the job of making sure that school boards comply with the order in "good faith."

The court's unanimous decision, read by Chief Justice Earl Warren, was the long-awaited follow-up to last year's historic ruling that segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

It followed the recommendations of the Justice Department, which had urged that the court take a middle ground between Negro demands for immediate school integration and southern states' demands that mixing of the races be postponed over a long period.

Mr. Warren's opinion directed lower courts to see to it that school boards "make a prompt and reasonable start toward full compliance" with last year's decision outlawing segregated school systems.

Referring to southern warnings that desegregation would lead to grave problems and vigorous resistance in the South, Mr. Warren said "it goes without saying" that constitutional principles "cannot be allowed to yield simply because of disagreement with them."

But he said lower courts "may properly take into account the public interest in the elimination of such obstacles in a systematic and effective manner."

"Full implementation" of these constitutional principles may require solution of varied local school problems," he said.

He said school authorities have "primary responsibility" for solving these problems, but federal courts will oversee the operation and determine whether the steps taken by various school boards "constitute good faith implementation" of the court's order.

He said the lower courts should give weight to public and private considerations involved in making the transition to non-segregated school systems. But he said the burden rests on the local school boards to establish that a delay is needed.

The lower courts, under the high tribunal's order, may consider problems related to "administration, arising from the physical condition of the school plant, the school transportation system, personnel, revision of school districts and attendance areas into compact units to achieve a system of determining admission to the public schools on a nonracial basis, and revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving the foregoing problems."

Two Stelle Wells Biggest Producers In Eldorado Field

John Stelle Associates have hit the jackpot in the Eldorado oil field, according to reports.

John Stelle predicted that the two Paul McKinnis wells in Section 16 of north Eldorado would have a total initial output of 7,000 barrels a day. Tests of the Waltersburg brought out a flow of 174 barrels an hour from one of the tests.

Reports were that the wells are the largest in years from a sand formation in the entire state of Illinois.

These will be the biggest producers by far in the lush Eldorado field. Last week the George and Weather Oil Company's Gates Community Unit No. 1 and its Gates Community Unit No. 2 both came in with initial productions of 2,040 barrels per day, or a total of slightly over 4,000 barrels per day.

The McKinnis and Gates wells are both in Section 16, Eldorado township, which includes part of the city of Eldorado and the area immediately to the north, east and west of the city limits.

Latest of the Tri-State oil reports show that the Paul McKinnis Unit No. 1 is 270 feet north and 452 feet east of the SW corner of the SE quarter of the SW quarter, 16-88-7e, and the McKinnis Unit No. 2 is in the SE corner of the SE quarter of the SW quarter of Section 16-88-7e.

The report showed that the Waltersburg was 42 feet thick at the No. 1 and 41 feet thick at the No. 2.

Illinois Lists 18 Traffic Deaths Over Holiday; Well Below Predictions for State

By United Press
Illinois motorists kept the traffic death toll well below the grim predictions for the Memorial Day weekend.

A United Press survey showed there were 18 traffic deaths in the state from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Monday. This included 5 in Cook County and 13 elsewhere.

The Chicago Motor Club had predicted 31 highway fatalities — 13 in Cook County and 18 downstate.

There were 7 drownings and 3 deaths in miscellaneous accidents, for a total of 28 deaths in the three-day period.

The Illinois holiday dead included:

Traffic
Clarence Petersen, 48, Chicago, killed when his auto hit a bridge abutment in Chicago.

Charles Hanson, 40, killed in a tractor accident on a farm near Cameron Monday.

Mrs. Mary Lou Short, 18, Pekin, killed Friday night when the car in which she was riding smashed into a telephone pole near Pekin.

James Wright, 18 months, Iuka, Miss., killed Friday night in a smashup near Olmstead.

James Mitchell, 40, Caruthersville, Mo., killed in a two-truck collision near Farmersville Saturday.

Robert Le Blanc, 25, Chicago, killed Saturday in Chicago when his car hit a viaduct pole.

Kezlie Woods, 55, Milwaukee, killed Saturday when his car overturned near Waukegan.

Carl Culliver, 43, New Harmony, Ind., and Donald Storey, 24, Englewood, killed Sunday in a two-car collision near Carmi.

Mrs. Albert DeKant, 55, Chicago, killed Sunday in a two-car crash near Grayslake.

Robert Croughan, 28, Flora, killed when his car hit a tree near Iuka.

Agnes Komisar, 42, South Hadley Falls, Mass., and Francisca Sanchez, 46, Union, killed in a two-car crash near Rantoul Sunday.

Howard Rothe, 59, Deadwood, S. D., killed Sunday when his truck smashed into a tree near Rockford.

Marvin Sulis, 20, Chicago, killed Monday when his car went off the road in Chicago.

A. D. Cunningham, 18, Chicago, died Monday after being hit Saturday by a Chicago hit and run driver.

W. J. Ceries, 16, St. Louis, killed Sunday when his car hit a tree at East St. Louis.

David Williams, 27, Argo, killed in the Chicago suburb of Palos Township when his car hit a tree.

Eugenia Golliher
Is Third in Miss
Illinois Contest

For the second consecutive year, the Harrisburg entrant in the Miss Illinois contest came away with high honors, as Miss Eugenia Golliher took third place in this year's contest, held Friday and Saturday at Quincy.

The winner, Miss Illinois of 1955, was Marian Elizabeth Cox, Miss Bloomington-Normal.

According to a story in the Quincy Herald-Whig, Miss Golliher was the audience favorite of all the contestants. "Crowd pleaser of the entire group of beauties was Miss Harrisburg, the third-place finisher. She presented a skit telling of her sports interest, with emphasis on swimming. She has been a swimming star since she was a child."

The new Miss Illinois was chosen from a group of 14 contestants, representing cities and towns throughout the state. She succeeds Pat Bruce of Fairfield, who is well-known here through her appearances on WSL-TV and at the Jaycee Beauty Pageant last summer.

Miss Mary Anne Humm, another Harrisburg girl, represented Carmi in the Miss Illinois contest.

Ado Jackson, 63,
Eldorado RFD, Dies

Ado Jackson, 63, a local trucker and farmer residing on Eldorado RFD 2, died suddenly Monday while working about his home.

He is survived by his wife, Maud; one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Ann Baugher, Eldorado; two sons, Murray Jackson, an employee of the State Department in Washington, D. C., and who is now en route to French Morocco, North Africa, and Kenneth Jackson, supervisor of Long Branch township; a sister, Lula Osborne, Paducah, Ky., and two brothers, Roy of Cuba, Mo., and Ira of Oregon; and eight grandchildren. One son, James, preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the chapel of the Bean and Tanner funeral home where the body lies in state. Rev. C. C. Lowe will officiate, and burial will be in the Wolf Creek cemetery.

He was a member of the First Methodist church in Eldorado.

Will Reunite With Families At Honolulu

Talbot Arranges
To Fly Relatives to Hawaii in AF Plane

HONG KONG (AP)—Four American jet pilots shot down in the Korean War emerged from two years in Red Chinese prisons today and headed immediately for a reunion with their families in Honolulu.

The four arrived from Canton aboard a Communist train at the border village of Sunchun at 1:17 p. m. (10:17 p. m. Monday CST). They reached freedom at exactly 2:33 p. m. (11:33 p. m. CST) when they crossed through the barbed wire barrier which marks the border between this British crown colony and Red China.

They were greeted by U. S. officials, given a preliminary medical examination by American doctors, and then whisked to Hong Kong.

The four, Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., 28, Swea City, Iowa; Lt. Col. Edwin L. Heller, 36, Wynnewood, Pa.; 1st Lt. Roland W. Parks, 24, Omaha, Neb.; and 1st Lt. Lyle W. Cameron, Lincoln, Neb., headed for Honolulu three hours later.

Plan Stop at Guam
They were not permitted to talk with waiting newsmen. An Air Force spokesman explained later that the precaution had been taken lest they say something that might harm the chances for the release of 11 other airmen still held by the Reds. He indicated that orders to keep the released fliers "under wraps" had come from Washington.

They took off from Hong Kong airport aboard an Air Force C54 with a scheduled stop at Guam.

Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbot arranged for the nearest relatives of the fliers to be flown to Honolulu in an Air Force plane for a joyous reunion and for them to be provided with accommodations "at no expense to them" when they arrived there.

Traffic deaths during the weekend mounted today to a new record for a three-day Memorial Day holiday.

Reports for the period beginning at 6 p. m. Friday and ending at midnight Monday showed 372 deaths on the roads.

They also showed 136 drownings, 11 deaths in air crashes, and 53 deaths from miscellaneous causes, for an overall total of 572.

California had 30 auto deaths, Texas 29, Ohio 27, New York 20 and Missouri 18.

The previous record for the three-day Memorial Day holiday in United Press surveys was 364, set last year.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council which works year round in appealing to motorists to be careful, said observance of the Golden Rule by drivers would have halved the total. The council had forecast a probable 360 deaths.

Two of Monday's dead lost their lives while giving holiday pleasure seekers a thrill.

Bill Vukovich, twice winner of the 500-mile automobile race at Indianapolis, met death trying to speed to a third crown. His sleek blue racer smashed into a pileup of wrecked cars, turned over five times, and came to rest on its back.

Vukovich, 36, burned to death.

At Canton, Ohio, stunt flyer Paul Anderson, 28, was putting his clipped wing monoplane through its paces when it failed to pull out of a high-speed loop 100 feet above ground. The plane crashed, killing Anderson before the eyes of 5,000 persons.

Seven airmen died in another Memorial Day plane crash. The Air Force C47 cargo plane in which they were riding smashed into the Sacramento Mountains near Alamogordo, N. M. There were no survivors.

There were few particularly spectacular car crashes on the nation's highways—just a dreary and disheartening succession of screaming brakes, smashed metal and sudden death.

William Duvall, 47,
Carrier Mills, Dies
In Veterans Hospital

William Duvall, 47, resident of Carrier Mills, died in the Veterans hospital in Marion yesterday at 4:30 p. m.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Beatrice Rouse, with whom he made his home; a sister, Mrs. Rose Raseo, Terulian, Ky., and two brothers, Alva Harrison, Columbus, Ohio, and Andrew Harrison, Scott Air Force Base, Scott Field, Ill.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the M. E. church in East End. Rev. Dooley, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Johnson, will officiate. Burial will be in the Lake View cemetery.

The body will be taken from the Thornton funeral home in Carrier Mills to the church to lie in state one hour prior to the funeral. The casket will be closed before the funeral and will not be reopened.

Varying Reaction to Half Cent Sales Tax Shown in Downstate Cities

By United Press
Officials of downstate Illinois cities gave varying reactions today to the idea of a city sales tax.

Illinois law now permits a half-cent city sales tax—but only if the voters okay it first. Several cities have tried to get referendum approval, but none has succeeded.

An attempt is being made in the Legislature now to erase this referendum requirement. It has the backing of Republican Gov. William G. Stratton and Chicago's Democratic Mayor Richard J. Daley, who want to levy a sales tax in the state's biggest city.

A spot-check of downstate cities shows some city officials on the fence, some anxious for the new power, and a few falling into the category of outspoken opposition.

At Marion, the mayor and four city commissioners were unanimously in favor of a city sales tax, if the bill becomes law. Marion had only $171 in its general fund in mid-May, with obligations of about $5,600 due by month's end.

Herrin Mayor Dave Miller said he would ask his city council to enact a sales tax if the Legislature okays the proposal.

Sororal Club Meets
With Mrs. Nellie Youcum
The Sororal Club met Friday evening.

Two guests were present to make the evening more pleasant. They were Jo Gilchrist and Colleen Edmondson.

Games were played after a short business meeting and prizes were won by Bonnie Beggs, Winnie Craig, Jo Gilchrist, Pat Durfee and Marjory Whiting.

A mystery Pal gift was presented to Pat Durfee. Delicious refreshments of hors d'oeuvre, strawberry sundae, Cokes, potato chips and mint flavors, were served to Bonnie Bolin, Marjory Whiting, Winnie Craig, Pat Durfee, Aline Stone and Bobby, Bonnie Beggs and Dianne, Judy Smith and the hostess, Nellie Youcum.

The club will meet June 3 with Bonnie Beggs in Carrier Mills.

Jennie Gowins Hostess
To Gayettes Recently
The Gayettes met recently at the home of Jennie Gowins.

During the business meeting plans were made for a picnic at Karel park to which the husbands will be invited.

Games were played and prizes won by Norma Pyle and Kathleen Bynum. Delicious refreshments were served to Sally Hamp, Imogene Bush, Norma Pyle, Kathleen Bynum, Beryl McMillan, Carlene Oze, Lou Eva Deering, Norma Flannel and Greta Hill.

The next regular meeting will be at the home of Rena Park.

Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Herrin Honored With Farewell Supper

The Carrier Mills Ministerial Alliance held a farewell supper for Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Herrin Tuesday night at the Baptist church.

The picnic was planned for outside but the rain brought the picnickers to the basement of the church.

The menu consisted of baked ham and vegetables, cake and strawberries.

Most officials at Rockford were regarded as opposed to the idea of a city sales tax, though the city is trying to get rid of a $200,000 deficit. A hefty reduction in the city budget appears to be the likely outcome.

Moline officials haven't commented. But that Iowa border city has led the fight against a state sales tax hike and it is doubtful whether it would go for a city sales tax boost.

Prospects of a city sales tax seem slim at Elgin, where Mayor Orlo E. Salibury and other members of the new city administration campaigned on a "no tax" platform.

Benton Favors Utility Tax
West Frankfort is talking about a penny-a-pack cigarette tax. Council members appear to favor a sales tax, though, if it's authorized without referendum.

Benton Mayor William L. Carter said "it would be very unpopular" to enact a city sales tax without voter approval. But Carter and the four city commissioners said they'd favor a utility receipts tax, also advocated by Stratton and Daley.

Urbana officials said they'd prefer a cigarette levy over any other city tax proposed. Mayor Glen Chapman said a city sales tax would be "costly and the whole system inefficient."

Freeport Mayor Glen Kunkle said the city will have to find more money somehow, but he didn't know about the sales tax.

At Mount Vernon, where voters last year defeated a sales levy in a referendum, the tax was considered a possibility but only if nearby cities like Centralia and Salem levied one, too.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Ike Definitely Says No Second Term; Herbert Hoover Complains Of News Leaks.

WASHINGTON. — The President recently held another of his famous stage dinners for which the guest list is no longer available, but at which he made his views clearer than ever that he did not intend to run for a second term.

Those who attended the dinner came away convinced he meant what he said.

"I've had it," was what one dinner guest quoted him as saying.

He went on to say that no political party should be dependent on one man. He explained that he had never had a vacation in his entire life and was tired. The only let-up he ever had from the stress and strain of military duties was when he was president of Columbia University, and that, he said, was no vacation.

The President also complained about his bursitis, said it was the result of tension and nerves. So he said he felt he deserved a chance to go up to his Gettysburg farm and relax.

The dinner meeting lasted from about 7:30 to 11:45 with a lot of politics discussed. But the politics that directly affected the President seemed quite definite.

HOOPER'S LEAKS
Herbert Hoover has been sore as blazes at this writer for publishing advance copies of some of his government reorganization reports.

Mr. Hoover has squawked about it vocally and vigorously, though privately. In fact, he's been so irked that he's given orders that all task-force reports on government reorganization be "classified" and he's threatened to prosecute anyone leaking information to Pearson.

It would appear that Mr. Hoover is not too familiar with the law. Because his reports pertain not to military or defense secrets but only to problems of bureaucracy and red tape. And never in the entire history of the United States has it been against the law to publish information pertaining to efficiency in government.

Apparently Mr. Hoover hasn't changed much. When in the White House he also used to be riled over news-leaks, asked publishers to fire newsmen who published embarrassing stories.

So I hope he won't get too upset over today's leak about news-leaks to Pearson.

RINGLING BROTHERS' OKAPI
The Ringling Brothers, who featured a big extravaganza spectacle on the life of Ike Eisenhower in 1953, aren't feeling too happy about the Ike administration today.

Reason is okapi.
Not many people know okapi. And the reason they don't know okapi is that there's only one in captivity. That one is supposed to be touring with Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey. He's listed in the circus program and given a big ballyhoo. But he isn't under canvas. Instead he's up in New Jersey in the Agriculture Department quarantine station, kept there by Brother Ezra Taft Benson.

An okapi, only discovered about 20 years ago, is an African quadruped that has stripes like a zebra around its neck and hind quarters, but otherwise has some of the mixed characteristics of a giraffe and a wild bull.

This particular okapi is being quarantined because Benson's boys claim it comes from a hoof-and-mouth-diseased part of Africa. However, it's been in quarantine 90 days in Africa, 60 days in Hamburg, Germany, and 60 days in New Jersey. So the Ringling Brothers think that's enough to shed any of its bacteria—if there ever were any.

Sen. Milton Young of North Dakota has written the Agriculture Department protesting about the okapi, but the Benson boys are adamant.

However, aside from okapi's absence, the circus this year seems bigger and better than ever.

DULLES BOYCOTTS EMPEROR
The playboy emperor of Indo-China, Bao Dai, is furious at J. Foster Dulles for refusing to see him while in Paris. Bao Dai drove to Paris in one of his nine limousines to talk about Indo-China with Dulles. But the secretary of State refused to acknowledge his request, instructed every one of his aides to ignore him. Bao Dai has now returned to his Riviera villa and is threatening to make a dramatic flight to Indo-China and personally overthrow the government which the United States is supporting.

Nearest thing to FLYING SORCERY

(Man! what Variable Pitch Propellers do for Dynaflo Drive!)

IN A land vehicle, there's never been anything like the magic a pilot gets with his variable pitch propellers.

He can angle the blades of his propellers for performance as he heads his plane down a runway—to get quick take-off and climb.

He can switch the angle of those propellers for economy aloft—to get more mileage from the fuel in his tanks.

As we said—there's never been anything like that in a land vehicle. But there is now. It's in a Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and you can take the word of thousands of excited owners of new Buicks that it's the closest thing to wheeled flight...

Because you have twenty propeller-like blades whirling in oil inside your Dynaflo unit...

Because you can switch the pitch of those propeller blades from high-economy angle that gives you top gas mileage in cruising—to high-performance angle that gives you action plus...

And because, when you call for that action by pressing the gas pedal way down—you get it split-second quick and silky smooth—an instantaneous power response for get-away, or for a sudden safety-surge of acceleration when needed.

It's a solid, soaring, pulse-quickenning thrill

—unlike anything you ever felt before—and robustly bolstered by walloping new horse-powers raised to record might.

It's something you definitely ought to try—just to know what's really new in automobiles—and to see for yourself why Buick sales are zooming to an all-time best-seller high.

Drop in today or tomorrow and we'll gladly arrange matters—show you, too, the prices that are keeping Buick in the tight circle of America's top sellers.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Former Capone Bodyguard Dies

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Louis (Little New York) Campagna, 57, gambler, extortionist, bank robber and one-time body-guard to gang lord Al Capone, died of "natural causes" after suffering a heart attack on a yacht.

Campagna was aboard the yacht Nellie, owned by William Scott Stewart, Chicago criminal attorney, when he collapsed Monday. He was fishing and had just landed a 30-pound grouper.

Campagna's widow, Charlotte, was at their home in Berwyn, Ill., when informed of her husband's death. She ordered his body flown

Study Crash of Air Force C47 With Seven Dead

ALAMAGORDO, N. M. (AP)—An official investigation opened today into the crash of an Air Force C47 cargo plane in the Sacramento Mountains. All seven men aboard the plane were killed in the Memorial Day tragedy.

A spokesman from nearby Holloman Air Force Base said a board of officers will visit the scene of the crash early today and begin a study of the accident.

The plane, a member of the 312th Fighter Bomber Squadron of Clovis Air Force Base, Clovis, N. M., smashed into a canyon wall in front of 9,000-foot La Luz Peak shortly before dark Monday night. The crippled craft then plunged to earth and burned.

The Forest Service, which sounded the original alarm, said the two-engine craft was demolished. The rescue teams told Holloman officials the bodies were mutilated and charred beyond recognition.

An Air Force spokesman at the scene of the crash said the ship's pilot, Maj. Edward Miller of Clovis had apparently dipped into the canyon and was unable to pull out.

The other victims in the crash were 1st Lt. Don Forbes of Portland, Ore.; 1st Lt. Robert Haugan of Chicago; 1st Lt. Clyde Johnson of Benson, N. C.; Tech. Sgt. Leamon Lawson of Clovis; Airman 2-C Lester Barnes, Maywood, Calif. and Airman 2-C Charles Deaton, Comiskey, Ind.

Stars Blank Carterville, 8-0

The Harrisburg Stars defeated Carterville Sunday afternoon by a score of 8-0 in a baseball game played on the town park diamond. Lefty Jack Nolen went the distance for the Stars, giving up but five hits and retiring five on strikes. It was his first win of the season and his second start. In 18 innings Nolen has allowed eight hits and two runs.

The Stars took the lead in the first frame, counting two runs on hits by K. Nolen and Shewmake and a fielder's choice and an error. Another was added in the second inning on a two-base hit by Rod Smith and singles by J. Nolen and Ziegler.

In the fifth inning Sisky and Shewmake collected doubles back-to-back for a run and a four-run sixth completed the scoring. In the big sixth Smith walked, Cowger, K. Nolen and Ziegler hit safely and a Carterville error aided in the run making.

Harrisburg had eight runs, twelve hits and made two errors. Carterville scored no runs, had five hits and also made two mis-
Noakes pitched for the losers with Scriggitt his catcher. Cowger was the Stars' receiver.

Ziegler turned in the fielding play of the day, a leaping, tumbling one-handed catch of a looping fly ball to left field.

K. Nolen took hitting honors with four hits in five tries. Ziegler and Shewmake had two each and Sisky, Smith, Cowger and J. Nolen hit safely once each.

Next Sunday the Stars play at Seebree, Ky., and Sunday, June 12, will entertain the Uniontown team at the town park here.

The Stars' management stated today it wanted to thank the fans for their fine support Sunday.

VanderPluym Quits Coaching For Gulf Co. Post

John VanderPluym of Harrisburg, who coached at McLeansboro high school this past school term, today announced he had resigned the post to accept a position with the Gulf Oil Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. VanderPluym left Harrisburg this morning for Decatur to seek housing, as he plans to headquarter in that city.

He has accepted a position as sales representative with Gulf to work the central Illinois area and will live in Decatur if suitable housing is available there.

Mr. VanderPluym, a graduate of Harrisburg Township high school with the class of 1949 and a SIU graduate in 1953, taught a half term at HTHS before accepting a post on the McLeansboro high school faculty. He was head football coach and assistant in basketball and track. He also taught physical education and drivers' training.

VanderPluym was the first football coach at McLeansboro in twenty-five years as the school added the gridiron sport to its athletic program in 1953 for the first time since 1929.

He stated today it was a difficult decision to make to leave the coaching profession, but the opportunity to go with the Gulf Oil Corporation was too attractive to turn down.

Dick Harold Receives Letter at Kemper

Dick Harold, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Harold Jr., 608 South Main street, Harrisburg, was awarded a company softball letter at Kemper Military School, Boonville, Mo., for outstanding participation on his softball team this spring.

The letter was awarded in an athletic assembly conducted by Lt. Col. J. G. Kralovec, director of athletics.

Sweikert Finds Fame in Winning Memorial 500; Vukovich, 2-Time Winner, Dies in Flaming Crash

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Bob Sweikert found fortune and Bill Vukovich, who discovered the identical pot of gold earlier, found death on the same site, the Indianapolis Speedway.

Sweikert, a balding 29-year-old driver who never had finished in three previous starts in the 500-mile Memorial Day race, won a minimum of $32,900 Monday with the first place in the 39th renewal of the annual contest.

Vukovich, driving for the fifth time, winner for the past two years and pace setter for 1955's fastest field in history until he collided with death, lay today in a mortuary.

North Wins Outboard Racing Championship In Races at Cairo

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—The North won the fifth annual North-South outboard racing championship in Memorial Day races on the Ohio river. Jim Griffin of Quincy led the North squad, piling up 1,169 points. Clyde Davis of Centralia and Arthur Kennedy of St. Louis helped out with 1,100 and 700, respectively.

Dr. W. G. Reichardt of Nashville, Tenn., was the South's best racer, picking up 807 points. Ralph Scott, Paducah, Ky., got 708, and Bill Weeks, Fort Smith, Ark., contributed 400.

The two days of runabout and hydroplane class races ended Monday. Special contestants were to try to set new speed records today.

Tonight, when Sweikert steps up at the payoff banquet to collect perhaps more money than Vukovich won last year, $74,934, with a record speed, 130.840 miles per hour, final burial arrangements will be completed for the Fresno, Calif., pilot who led the speedway field for 485 of the last 800 laps.

Niday Injured Critically

Meanwhile, Cal Niday, injured in another crash, was in critical condition. Niday was hurt when he spun and hit the northwest wall.

Sweikert finished the race with an average speed of 128.209 miles per hour, slower since 1951 when Lee Wallard won a 126.244. But he was held down for 27 minutes and 10 seconds while the wreckage of the five car crash in which Vukovich found flaming death was cleared from the track.

Vukovich got in trouble because Rodger Ward hit a bridge over the track on the backstretch. Johnny Boyd flipped over, trying to avoid Ward. Then Vukovich came along. He rode up over both racers, soared over the outside wall, collided with a car, a truck and a jeep and turned over in flames.

Vukovich remained inside to die as the flames were extinguished. Vukovich before he died was the major factor. He led the field for 50 laps and had the pace at a record speed, 136.212 miles per hour, at 125 miles for the only new mark of the event.

With the caution light on so long, the field never got a chance to challenge the record again. Niday's accident kept the final speed down also.

Six Men Led Race

Only six men led during the race. Jack McGrath, the record holder for qualification tests, challenged Vukovich early and set the race for six laps. Jimmy Bryan moved in front after Vukovich was killed.

Then Sweikert took over, after 89 laps, and held first until 132 laps. Art Cross and Don Freeland each led briefly too after Sweikert made his last pit stop before the winner moved ahead to stay after 160 laps. And McGrath, Bryan, Cross and Freeland all went out with mechanical troubles.

In second place was Tony Bettenhausen, Tinley Park, Ill. Jimmy Davies, Pacoima, Calif., was third, and Johnny Thompson, Springfield, Mass., fourth. All other cars were flagged off the track.

Seven cars were involved in accidents, but other than Vukovich and Niday, none of the other drivers were injured seriously. They were Ward, Boyd, Freddie Agashian, A. Keller and Ed Elissian.

Two National Guardsmen and a spectator also were hurt in Vukovich's crash.

The record payoff for the speedway was $89,496.96 to Vukovich for winning in 1953, leading the field for 195 laps.

Tonight Sweikert might do better as lap prize money has been increased from $100 for each turn to $150 and the total payoff will be to be $275,000 rather than the 1953 total of $246,300.

Golliday Equals Record for 100, But Time Unrecognized

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—One of these days the elements are going to smile on Jim Golliday and he'll make the track world take firm notice.

The sprinter from Northwestern pumped the 100-yard dash in .09.3 at the Big Ten's 55th track meet last Saturday to equal the world record. But, unfortunately, the elements in the form of a 5.7 m.p.m. wind helped him along and the time will not be recognized.

Golliday previously had equalled the world record, which is .09.3, on May 14. He keeps hoping that one of these days he and mother nature will get together and the record will fall.

Golliday and Willard Thomson, Illinois' defending hurdler, were the only double winners as Michigan swept to the Western Conference title for the first time since 1944.

Golliday won the 100-yard dash with a recognized time of .09.5 to nip Minnesota's Harry Nash between wind and rainstorms. Then Golliday captured the 220-yard dash in 21.3 seconds. Michigan's Dave Flodin was second. Thomson tied a Big Ten record in winning the 120-yard high hurdles in .14.0 and took the 200-yard lows in .23.0.

Michigan's balance paid off in the overall standings as the Wolverines took 7 of 14 events good for 62 1-8 points. Runner-up Illinois scored 31 13-18; Iowa 25-29; Minnesota 24-19; Michigan State 19-49; Ohio State 16-29; Indiana 12-49; Wisconsin 12; Northwestern 10 and Purdue 3.

Two Hungarians Set New One and Two Mile Records

LONDON (AP)—A weekend assault on world track records by a pair of Hungarians left the sports world wondering in amazement today just how low the one and two mile records eventually will be driven.

Sandor Iharos, a 25-year-old clerk, flabbergasted fans at White City Stadium Monday by slashing seven seconds from the world two-mile mark with a clocking of 8 minutes, 33.4 seconds.

Only two days before, the track and field tournament had been rocked by a mile run in which three runners—Laszlo Tabori of Hungary and Chris Chataway and Brian Hewson of Britain—all finished under four minutes.

Legion Wins Two Games Over Holiday

The Harrisburg Legion nine won a pair of ball games from two out-of-state opponents over the holidays as they handed the Uniontown, Ky., Cardinals a 10 to 5 set Sunday afternoon and came home to whip the Evansville, Ind., Merchants, 12 to 5, Memorial Day.

The former game was played at the losers' field while the latter was played here at the park diamond. A combination of solid hitting and good pitching paid off for the locals. At Uniontown, the Legion clubbed Big Jim Bumpus for 15 safe hits in scoring ten times against the visiting Evansville club the locals banged out 20 safeties to score an even dozen tallies.

Dick Odle and Freddie Williams were the big guns for the Legion in the Sunday game as they clubbed out four hits each to pace the 15 hit onslaught. Merle Dailey with three and Bob Dallas with two helped to swell the base-hit total. Frank Logsdon and Harold Gully picked up the remaining two safeties. Dick Romonosky started this game on the rubber for the Legion and held the Cardinals to eight safeties for the seven innings he pitched. Bill McNew tossed the final two frames and allowed no hits. Frank Logsdon was the local receiver.

The Legion scored twice in the first inning and twice in the second. A single run was tallied in the fourth and after the Cardinals had tied up the game at five-all in the sixth, the locals wrapped it up by scoring five times in the eighth.

In the game played here, the locals jumped off to a one run lead in the first and were never headed thereafter. Three runs crossed pay dirt in the third frame; a single run in the fourth and three more in the fifth. Single runs were scored in the sixth and seventh innings and the final three crossed the plate in the eighth.

Bill McNew tossed eight innings to chalk up the win with Darrell Powell hurling the final frame for the winners. Dick Romonosky was behind the plate all the way. Meyer started on the hill for the visitors and he gave way to Braumeyer in the sixth. Ferguson was the Merchants' receiver.

Harold Gully paced the locals in their 20-hit offensive by banging away four solid safeties, followed closely by "Flash" Griffiths with a double and two singles, Bob Dallas with a two-on-base home run into the center field lagoon and two singles, and Dick Romonosky with three singles. Odle had two for four and Logsdon two for two; with Williams, Dailey and McNew picking up their other safeties. Angermeyer with three for five led the losers' eight hit attack.

Tonight the Legion is playing Cape Girardeau, Mo., one of the strongest baseball teams in this area. Sunday it will meet the Carterville Stars at the local diamond.

Rookie Bob Speake Sparks Cubs to Two Extra-Inning Wins Over the Cardinals

By United Press

Major-league baseball fired a 31-homer salute in honor of Memorial Day and when the smoke settled today, rookie Bob Speake of the surprising Chicago Cubs turned out to be the holiday's biggest blaster.

Speake, a mere .254 hitter in the Class A Western League last season, sparked two rallies that carried the Cubs to a 9-5, 10-inning victory in the opener against the St. Louis Cardinals and then settled the 11-inning nightcap with a homer that produced a 4-3 triumph.

And thus the "Windy City wonders" passed the Memorial Day milestone as the only National League team offering the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers a serious fight.

The Dodgers also swept a twin bill, 8-4 and 8-3, over last-place Pittsburgh, and did it the day's greatest mass cannonading with five homers. But, thanks to Speake's heroics, the Brooklyn blasters were unable to improve on their league lead of six games.

Speake's two homers gave him a total of 10 and his five runs-batted-in a total of 32. And the 24-year-old southpaw swinger from Springfield, Mo., has compiled a .304 batting mark that is a far cry from his Western League average.

Williams Hits First Homer

Ted (The Thumper) Williams joined the holiday slugging with his first homer of the year in the Boston Red Sox' opening game, 8-6 loss to Baltimore, before the Sox took the nightcap, 8-1. It was the 367th homer of Ted's big-league career and served as a warning to all pitchers that the game's last 400 hitter is whacking the ball again.

Roy Campanella and pitcher Don Newcombe each smashed two homers in the Dodger triumphs, Newcombe's pair helping him to the nightcap victory that gave him the best pitching record in the majors — eight wins and no losses.

Russ Meyer was the opening winner, with relief from Ed Roebuck. Willie Mays' two-run, eighth-inning homer gave the New York Giants an opening game, 6-5 victory over Philadelphia, smashing the Phillies' seven-game winning streak. But lefty Jack Meyer dropped the Giants 10 games behind Brooklyn by "saving" a 3-1 victory for Bob Kuzava in the nightcap. It was the third time Meyer relieved and stopped the Giants within seven days.

The Milwaukee Braves swept a twin bill from Cincinnati, 7-6, and 8-4 with substitute first baseman George Crowe the big man. Crowe singled home the winning run in the opening game, his third hit of that fray, and then whalloped a three-run homer and scored two runs in the second game.

In the American League, the New York Yankees maintained their three-game lead over Cleveland by rallying to win the second game of a doubleheader from Washington, 5-3, after losing the opener, 3-2. Cleveland beat Chicago, 9-1, in their opener, and the White Sox took the second, 5-0 behind Billy Pierce. Kansas City took two games from Detroit, 8-6, and 5-4.

Yankee Pinch-Single Wins

Irv Noren's pinch-hit single with the bases loaded in the seventh inning scored two runs to break a 3-3 tie and give the Yankees their victory. In the opener, pinch-hitter Mickey McDermott of Washington also singled with the bases loaded, this time in the 10th inning, to give Porterfield a pitching victory over Bob Turley.

Pierce, who beat Cleveland on three hits a week ago, allowed the Indians just seven this time and the only Tribe runner to reach third base got there on an error.

Schoendienst Called Out for Interference While Standing at Plate

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Red Schoendienst was just standing there at home plate, minding his own business, when all of a sudden he was called out for interference.

The play, one of the most unusual of this major league season, occurred in the ninth inning of the Cards' second game loss to Chicago Monday, 4-3. Wally Moon, Card baserunner on second base, started in by trying to steal third while Schoendienst was batting.

Catcher Harry Chiti fired the ball toward third. The throw struck Schoendienst's bat and caromed away. Plate Umpire Stan Landes ruled Schoendienst out for interference and made Moon return to second.

DEATH OF A LEGEND

By WILL HENRY

Copyright 1954 by Will Henry. Used by arrangement with Random House, Inc. Distributed by NEA Service.

XXVII

As Jesse burst out of the bank, the first Northfielder fell. He was an unarmed, noncombatant laborer, and was literally torn apart by bandit bullets as he ran for cover. His senseless execution was the spark that blew up Northfield.

Enraged, one of his armed fellow townsmen ran out onto the sidewalk, blasted a shotgun charge at point-blank range into Clall Miller, now mounted up with Charlie Pitts, guarding Jesse's and Bob's horses. The charge struck him full in the chest and face. Spraying blood, he fought blindly for leather, found the horn, stayed in the saddle. Jesse and Bob were now both clear of the bank, crouching behind their tied horses, fighting furiously at the knotted reins.

Bill Chadwell, riding between Frank and Jim Younger, took a Winchester bullet through the heart. He slid out of the saddle so quietly his companions did not know he had been hit until his riderless horse galloped past and ahead of them.

Clell Miller, still streaming blood, kicked his horse away from the bank's hitchrail, abandoning Bob and Jesse to the closing crowd. A Civil War musket boomed from the window of Allen's Hardware. The 50-caliber ball passed through both lungs, severing an artery. Clell struck the dirt of Division Street, "flopped around like a crazy chicken and died right there, in front of the bank."

Frank took a slug through the right calf. Cole was shot in shoulder and thigh. Both were still mounted when Jesse, at last freeing his black from the rail, hammered toward them.

At the hitching rack, Bob, desperately wounded, right arm shattered from wrist to elbow by two Spencer slugs, his horse shot dead in his tracks, shouted at his leader. "Wait up, Jesse, wait up! They got my horse!"

His plea drew only heavier fire from the advancing citizen snipers. Crouching, he ran back into the shelter of the bank entrance. Across from the bank now, Pitts and Jim Younger raced up to join Cole and Frank. Pitts unmounted. Jim sacked in the saddle from a belly-to-back shot, just missing his left kidney. An instant later, Jesse slid his neighing black in among them.

"It's no use, boys!" he screamed. "We've got to get out, they'll kill us all." Cole's expression went dead blank.

"Hold up, Dinges," he said flatly. "How about Bob?" The hysteria rose in pitch. "He's done for, bad hit. We can't get him. There ain't no horse for him, no how!"

Cole drove the bay away from them, then, straight toward the bank, standing in the stirrups, roaring to his brother, "Run out, Bob, run out!"

He was hit twice more through the body before he slid his mount up to the bank. They saw his big back twist and buck to the slugs

Four Freed Fliers En Route to Hawaii

S. air attaché in Hong Kong, the man who met the fliers when they first crossed the Bamboo Curtain to freedom.

He used the fliers' measurements as contained in Air Force records. The clothing fit almost perfectly.

Reporters and photographers besieged the airmen before they left. Asked how it felt to be free, they all replied, "Wonderful!"

Treated "Pretty Well"

They said they were treated "pretty well" in prison. They also said they were notified May 24 they were going to be released. This was the same day that Peiping Radio announced they were tried by a military tribunal, found guilty of "intruding" into Manchuria and sentenced to immediate "deportation" from Communist China.

The airmen had been held by the Reds as "political prisoners," despite the fact that the United States maintained they had been shot down in action over Korea.

The Reds also are holding 11 other American airmen whose B-29 was shot down by Communist gunfire Jan. 13, 1953. They were sentenced to from 4 to 10 years for "espionage."

The release of Fischer, Heller, Parks and Cameron came through the efforts in their behalf of United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and V. K. Krishna Menon, India's roving peace envoy.

Their release raised hopes that the 11 other imprisoned American airmen also might be freed soon.

In addition to the four released today and the 11 other airmen, Red China also is holding an additional 40 American captives. The fate of some 500 others is in doubt.
